Webinar: Introduction to Medical Insurance, Billing, and Medical Debt for Interpreters

Date: 23 May 2018 6:00 PM PDT

Plus unlimited access to the webinar recording for 45 days.

NOTIS Community Interpreters Division presents

Introduction to Medical Insurance, Billing, and Medical Debt for Interpreters

This 90 minute webinar will provide an overview of different types of medical insurance and payment coverage, terminology resources, and an understanding of concepts related to billing and medical debt. At the end of the webinar, attendees will be directed to a short on-line quiz that they will complete in order to obtain their certificate of attendance.

The Community Interpreters Division of NOTIS is excited to offer this training in webinar format. Once registered, attendees will receive the web address. They can participate with the webinar live and ask questions through the GoToWebinar chat feature. A recording of this webinar will be made available for 30 days after the training. Only attendees who register by the deadline, watch the webinar, and complete the quiz will receive a certificate of attendance (and corresponding continuing education units).

Yvonne Simpson is the Medical Interpreter Supervisor at Harborview Medical Center in Seattle. She holds a Master of Arts in Spanish (Linguistics) and has significant experience in interpreting, translating, teaching and training. Yvonne is a DSHS Certified Spanish Medical Interpreter and is a Certified Medical Interpreter through the National Board.

Ramon Bueno is a Spanish interpreter, translator, interpreter trainer, pharmacy tech and BLS CPR instructor. He is a DSHS certified (English >Spanish) medical and social interpreter. He has worked in the medical field for the past eighteen years in different roles ranging from: Hospital inpatient and outpatient interpreting, Pharmacy tech third party online billing, dental office billing, and pre authorization referral coordinator, just to mention a few. He currently serves as a Spanish Interpreter at Harborview Medical Center (level one trauma center for the northwest region) on First Hill in Seattle, Washington.
